

Spiritual Gifts

Administration:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by effectively organizing resources and people in order to efficiently reach ministry goals. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Are effective organisers of people and projects towards reaching ministry goals.
- b. Are known for having specific plans to achieve clearly defined goals.
- c. Naturally delegate tasks, making it possible to accomplish more for God's kingdom.
- d. Seek decision-making opportunities.
- e. Understand what needs to be done for dreams to become a reality.

Apostleship:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by launching and leading new ministry ventures that advance God's purposes and expand His kingdom. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Are driven to start new endeavours for God, most often churches.
- b. Often welcome risky new challenges.
- c. Enjoy making a difference in the lives of believers and unbelievers alike.
- d. Are eager to be known as ambassadors for Christ in the world.
- e. Willingly work hard to see churches reach their full potential for God.

Discernment:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by recognizing truth or error within a message, person, or event. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Find it easy to 'read' others and are most often right.
- b. Recognize the spiritual source of a message - whether it is from God, Satan, or man.
- c. Recognize inconsistencies in others.
- d. Easily identify people's true motives and agendas.
- e. Perceive when the truth is twisted or communicated with error.

Encouragement:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by helping others live God-centred lives through inspiration, encouragement, counselling, and empowerment. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Are driven to inspire others and impact their lives positively for Christ.
- b. Rejoice with those whose reliance on Christ has helped them overcome difficult life situations.
- c. Seek out opportunities to help others reach their full potential in Christ.
- d. Are natural encouragers, whether in words or through action.
- e. Rejoice at other's success.

Evangelism:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by sharing the love of Christ with others in a way that draws them to respond by accepting God's free gift of eternal life.

Individuals with this gift:

- a. Look for ways to build relational bridges with nonbelievers.
- b. Sense when a person is open to Christ's message.
- c. Have likely seen many people come to faith in Jesus.
- d. Win others to Christ through the use of love over logic.
- e. Are deeply burdened for those who don't know Jesus.

Faith:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by stepping out in faith in order to see God's purposes accomplished, trusting Him to handle any and all obstacles along the way. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Welcome risk for God.
- b. Are energised by variables.
- c. Are challenged by ideas most see as impossible.
- d. Are often characterized by a passionate prayer life.
- e. Have great God-confidence in their ventures.

Giving:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by joyfully supporting and funding various kingdom initiatives through material contributions beyond the normal tithes and offerings. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Plan and purposefully give over and above the normal tithes and offerings, in order to see God's kingdom advanced.
- b. Generally prefer that their donations remain anonymous or low profile.
- c. Strategically seek out ways to increase their resources, in order to contribute more for God's use.
- d. Are often characterized by a passionate prayer life.
- e. Recognize God's ultimate ownership of everything.

Healing:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by healing and restoring to health, beyond traditional and natural means, those who are sick, hurting, and suffering. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Believe firmly that people can be supernaturally healed.
- b. Pray specifically to be used by God to heal others.
- c. Fully realize that healing occurs only by God's divine permission.
- d. View medicine as a means God may choose for healing.
- e. Embrace their gift as from the hand of God, and as a specific way to bring Him glory.

Helping:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by offering others assistance in reaching goals that glorify God and strengthen the body of Christ. This aptitude is sometimes referred to as the gift of 'helps' or 'service'. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Enjoy and seek out ways to serve behind the scenes.
- b. Rejoice in the success of others.
- c. Are often detail-oriented.
- d. Look for ways to be of assistance to others.
- e. Do not seek recognition for their efforts.

Hospitality:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by providing others with a warm and welcoming environment for fellowship. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Are known for making those around them feel valued and cared for.
- b. Look for those individuals who may go unnoticed in a crowd.
- c. Desire that people feel loved and welcomed.
- d. See their home as God's property, given to them expressly to make others feel welcome.
- e. Promote fellowship among others wherever they are.

Interpretation:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by understanding, at a specific time, God's message when spoken by another by using a special language unknown to others in attendance. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Have a clear idea of what God is saying, even though the language used by the speaker is unknown to them at the specific time.
- b. Are able to translate words and messages of God in a way that edifies, comforts, and exhorts believers.
- c. Convey the meaning of sounds, words, and utterances that glorify God, made by others.

Knowledge:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by communicating God's truth to others in a way that promotes justice, honesty, and understanding. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Devote much of their time to reading Scripture.
- b. Love to share biblical insight.
- c. Enjoy helping others increase their understanding of God's Word.
- d. Benefit from time spent in studying and researching Scripture.
- e. Take delight in answering difficult questions about God's Word.

Leadership:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by casting vision, stimulating spiritual growth, applying strategies, and achieving success where God's purposes are concerned. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Exhibit a tendency towards huge visions for God and the ability to inspire others to work toward accomplishing those visions for His glory, and to bless others.
- b. Are naturally drawn into leadership roles.
- c. Find it easy to motivate people-both individually and teams-to work together in achieving goals for God's kingdom.
- d. Naturally grasp the 'big picture'.
- e. Are able to let go of responsibility and delegate it to others who are qualified.

Mercy:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by ministering to those who suffer physically, emotionally, spiritually, or relationally. Their actions are characterized by love, care, compassion, and kindness towards others. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Are drawn toward opportunities to practically meet the needs of others.
- b. Devote significant time in prayer for the needs of others.
- c. Tend to place the needs of others ahead of their own.
- d. Grieve with those who grieve.
- e. Are most fulfilled when visiting people in need-in hospitals, nursing homes, prisons, orphanages, or wherever God directs them.

Miracles:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ through supernatural acts that bring validity to God and His power. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Recognize prayer as a supernatural vehicle through which God acts in the lives of people on earth.
- b. Render credit and thanks to God alone for supernatural works.
- c. Fully grasp the fact that miracles only occur when God wills them to happen.
- d. See themselves as instruments for God's use.
- e. Pray and look to supernatural results whenever they encounter impossible life situations.

Pastoring:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by taking spiritual responsibility for a group of believers and equipping them to live Christ-centred lives. Shepherding is another word used for this particular gift. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Are driven to help others reach their full potential in Christ.
- b. Enjoy serving others and look for opportunities to do this.
- c. Are good at developing personal, trust-based relationships with a small number of people.
- d. Have a propensity toward meeting the needs of others, willingly giving time to help them with spiritual issues.
- e. Believe that people take precedence over projects.

Prophecy:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by offering messages from God that comfort, encourage, guide, warn, or reveal sin in a way that leads to repentance and spiritual growth. The original Greek meaning of this word is 'to speak forth the truth'. The gift of prophecy includes both 'forthtelling' (preaching), and 'foretelling' (revelation). Individuals with this gift:

- a. Are known for publicly communicating God's Word, using a variety of means.
- b. Love to share strong biblical convictions with others.
- c. View yourself as God's tool, ready to be used by the Holy Spirit in changing lives.
- d. Find it easy to confront other's motives when they are not up to God's standards.
- e. Frequently receive and share messages directly from God for comforting, challenging, and confronting His people.

Teaching:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by teaching sound doctrine in relevant ways, empowering people to gain a sound and mature spiritual education. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Are given to hours in the study of Scripture in order to best apply its principles and truth.
- b. Enjoy making the Bible clear and understandable to others.
- c. Seek out opportunities to speak biblical insight into daily situations.
- d. Are good at helping others learn to study the Bible.
- e. Recognize a variety of ways to effectively communicate the Word of God, including speaking.

Tongues:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by communicating God's message in a special language unknown to the speaker. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Believe God is prompting them to communicate His message, often through prayer, in a specific language unknown to them.
- b. Intercede for others in prayer using unknown words, sounds and utterances.
- c. Desire opportunities to pray, using these unknown languages for God's glory.
- d. Share with others words and/or messages of God given to them using unknown languages.
- e. Comfort or exhort others using unknown languages inspired by God.

Wisdom:

The God-given special ability to serve and strengthen the body of Christ by making wise decisions and counselling others with sound advice, all in accordance with God's will. Individuals with this gift:

- a. Enjoy speaking biblical insights into life situations.
- b. Are sought after by others for advice / wisdom.
- c. Take pleasure in counselling others.
- d. Are known for making correct decisions and judgments.
- e. Recognize God as the primary source of wisdom and direction.